

Advocacy In Action

COURSE ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

To the extent that these training materials include photographs and other items that are copyrighted by persons other than the New Mexico Department of Health (“Department”) or the University of New Mexico (“UNM”), and for which the Department or UNM does not possess a copyright or license, such copyrighted works are reproduced and utilized for nonprofit educational purposes in accordance with the “fair use” provisions at 19 U.S.C.A. Section 107. Neither the Department nor UNM endorse the use of any products or services depicted in these training materials or linked videos, and neither the Department nor UNM is associated or otherwise affiliated with any such products or services.

For the amazing contributions, efforts, and work, we would like to thank:

- Tony's All Stars and specifically those who shared their experiences and stories in video:
 - Andi Morales, Caitlyn Higgins, Jeremiah Fleury, Reba Abundis, Curtis Glass, Denise Lopez, Crystal Garcia, Bonnie House, Amanda Mote, and Mathew Heady
- Advocates who participated in role plays, case scenarios, and Choices video:
 - David Ogden, Jeremy Sanchez, Christopher Gresham, and Crystal Alley
- SW People's First and specifically those who shared their experiences and stories in video:
 - Vanessa Saucedo and Ann Murillo
- Edward Santiago and other contributors from the DDSD Training Unit

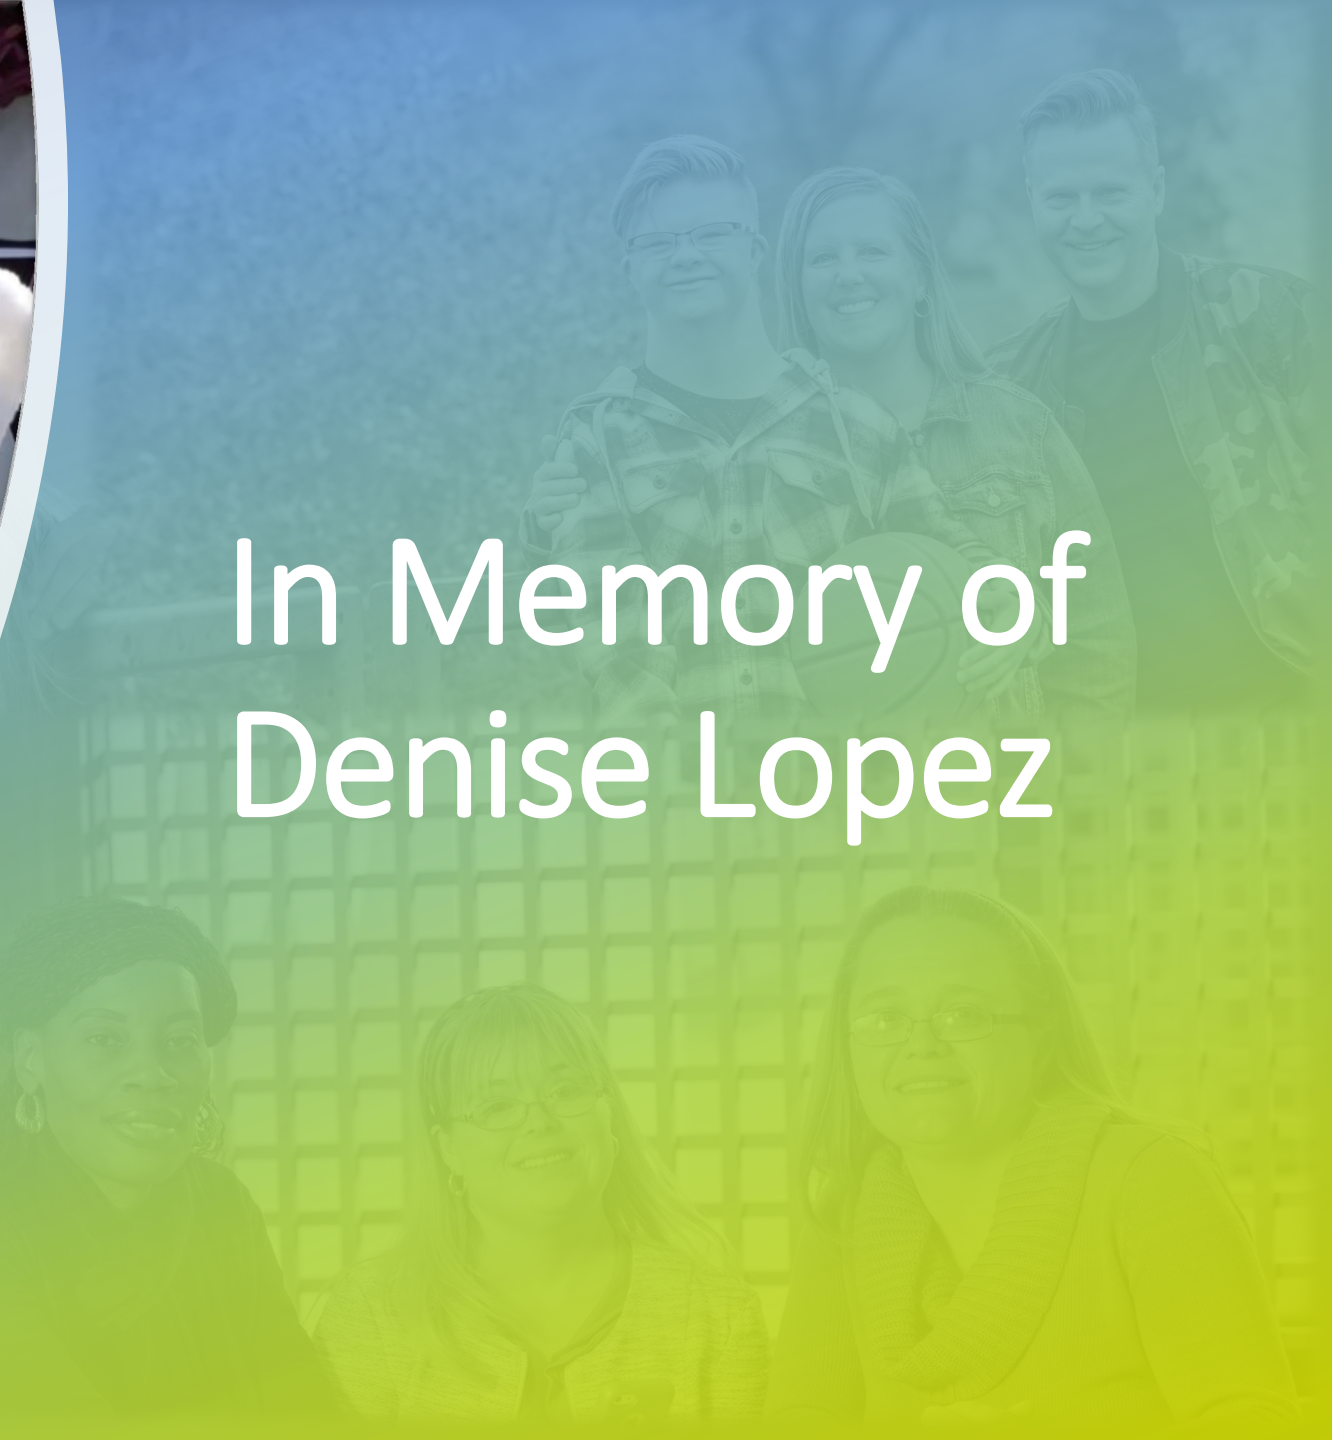

For the amazing contributions, efforts, and work, we would like to thank:

- Guardians Wendy Ford-Licon and Gretchen Futey
- Jacquie Mader, Director of Guardianship and Corporate Guardian with the Arc of New Mexico
- ARCA employees and advocates who created the Choices video: Sandra Taylor, Budd Berkman, Fred McCauley
- Bright Horizons, Inc. employees: Jonathan Baca, Ian Collyer, Danielle Smith, Rebecca Scannell, Russell Smith, and Tamara Velasquez
- Other professionals who contributed their valuable perspectives and content: Cathy Salazar, Lori Steward, and Christy Barden
- National Center for Supported Decision-Making

In Memory of Denise Lopez

Tony

